Balsam of Tolu. From the United States Dispensatory.

"Balsam of Tolu is a stimulant stomachic with a peculiar tendency to the pulmonary organs. It is given with some advantage in chronic ca-tarrh and other pectoral complaints in which a gently stimulating expec-torant is demanded, but should not be prescribed until after the reduction of inflammatory action. Inde-pendently of its medical virtues, its agreeable flavor renders it a popular ingredient in expectorant mixtures. Old and obstinate coughs are said to be sometimes greatly relieved by the inhalation of the vapor proceeding from an ethereal solution of this bal-
